ABOUT THE WINERY

Casal da Coelheira is a family owned estate alongside the great Tagus River (Rio Tejo in Portuguese), just one hour from Lisbon.

The 64 hectares of vineyards benefit from the Mediterranean climate and the sandy soils which stress the vines.

A small pine tree forest inside the farm provides a home to a wide range of animals. The most abundant, the rabbit (coelho in Portuguese), gave his name to the Estate - "Casal da Coelheira," roughly translated "little farm where the rabbits are born."
